Amendment II

A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

Mason, George; 1725-1792; judge and statesman; member Va. legislature, 1759 and a leader in the cause of American rights in opposition to British tyranny; author "Fairfax Resolves," 1774; member Va. Convention, 1775 and 1776--when he drafted Va. Declaration of Rights and a good part of Va. "Constitution;" in Va. legislature 1776-1780 and later; active in work leading up to 1787

Convention which framed U.S. Constitution, also as a member; did not sign Constitution and opposed ratification due to fear of inadequate limits on Federal power to prevent its becoming tyrannical; urged addition of "Bill of Rights;" was one of principal slave-owners (including Washington and Jefferson) who deplored existence of slavery and favored abolition, with compensation by government to owners of freed slaves.

Picnic

This year's picnic was the best yet. Most of our members pitched in to help. Dave Mullins took charge and brought the whole thing off nicely. Since it was his show I will leave the recognition of the individual picnic helpers to him. (see Dave Mullins note page 3)

President's Column

To all SACFLA members and friends,

I want to extend my gratitude to everybody who helped make our annual SACFLA picnic Sunday April 25, 2010 a great event. Our final attendance numbers are being tallied as I write, but the substantial number of liberty minded and politically active people who visited is very promising for our future. Freedom IS popular! Who'd a thunk it?

Everyone in attendance made this event a tremendous success, but I want to take the time to give special thanks to our resident BBQ guru Woody for his efforts in overcoming some major obstacles, running the smoker and making some great chicken (and maybe a rabbit or two). David Wood, Bob Felton and John Earley for the monumental task of planning and gathering all the food and supplies for the event. David Wood and Eric "California" Keskitalo for their invaluable assistance in setup and launch the day of the event. Bob and Betty Felton for putting together some wildly successful BBQ. Jennifer Pease for doing just about everything at one point or another during the day and EVERYONE for jumping right in the mix and helping with the cooking. We even had guests from the American Kyokushin Union (Kanamura Kyokushin Karate Dojo) voluntarily take over and staff the grill at one point. Amazing.

Mixed in with the great food and fun we had representatives from the Tea Parties, The 9-12 Groups, The JBS Society, the Constitution Party and Gerri Weits even had the blood mobile on site taking blood donations.

We heard from candidates running for varied Political offices.

Francisco Rodriguez (Florida House Dist.83), Mike Lameyer (Florida Senate in District 27), Tami Donnally (Florida House District 85), A representative for LTC Allen West's Campaign (US Congressional District 22) And many more attended including Joe Budd and Ed Lynch.

Most importantly, we had lots of kids around having lots of fun. We had some surprisingly resilient Piñatas, paintball target practice, packed playgrounds and a beautiful day.

I am honored to be a part of such a great community and look forward to having many more great interactions with all of the terrific people that came out to make their statement that we will never stop working to preserve our rights.
